STANDING ORDER
REGARDING FILING
AND ASSIGNMENT OF CIVIL CASES IN CORYELL COUNTY

ADMINISTRATIVE STANDING ORDER

This order is an administrative standing order of the 52nd Judicial District Court and the Coryell County Court at Law Court that applies in all civil cases filed with the District and County Clerk of Coryell County. Subject to the Rules of Court 52nd Judicial District of Texas Coryell County, the 52nd Judicial District Court and the Coryell County Court at Law Court of Coryell County approve this standing order on filing and assignment of civil cases. Therefore, it is ORDERED:

Cases within the Exclusive Jurisdiction of the District Court

All civil cases within the exclusive jurisdiction of the District Court shall be presented for filing to the District Clerk.

Cases within the Exclusive Jurisdiction of the County Court at Law

All civil cases within the exclusive jurisdiction of the County Court at Law (i.e., all probate, mental illness, appeals from justice and municipal courts, and condemnation cases (where title to the subject property is not in question) shall be presented for filing to the County Clerk.

Concurrent Civil Jurisdiction Cases

All civil cases within the concurrent civil jurisdiction of the District Court and County Court at Law (i.e., civil cases where the matter in controversy exceeds $500 and does not exceed $200,000, excluding interest, statutory or punitive damages and penalties, and attorney's fees and costs, as alleged on the face of the petition, and all family law matters) shall be presented for filing to the District Clerk.

Assignment of Cases

- (1) All cases within the exclusive jurisdiction of the District Court shall be assigned to the District Court.

Janice M. Gray
DISTRICT CLERK

- (2) All cases within the exclusive jurisdiction of the County Court at Law shall be assigned to the County Court at Law.
- (3) All cases within the concurrent jurisdiction of the District Court and County Court at Law shall be randomly assigned and equally distributed among the District Court and County Court at Law, subject to the following limitations:
  - (a) All juvenile cases shall be assigned to the County Court at Law.
  - (b) All Title IV-D Cases and Department of Family and Protective Services (as defined by the Texas Family Code) shall be assigned to the District Court.
- (4) To assure randomness of assignment, if a party dismisses or non-suits a case and refiles it within one year after dismissal, it will be reassigned to the Court which it was pending at the time of the dismissal or non-suit.
- (5) This order will apply to all newly filed cases in Coryell County, those transferred to Coryell County on change of venue, and those cases in Coryell County ordered reassigned by a recusing or transferring judge. Nothing herein will prevent judges from exchanging benches, sitting for another judge, or transferring cases between themselves, when allowed by law.

THIS STANDING ORDER REGARDING CIVIL FILING AND ASSIGNMENT SHALL BECOME EFFECTIVE ON THE 1ST DAY OF NOVEMBER 2014.
